DAER Nightclub will suspend operations as a precautionary effort until further notice.

"Given national concerns over the spread of COVID-19/coronavirus, Hard Rock Atlantic City has made a decision to take an abundance of caution and is committed to ensuring the safety and security of our team members, guests and community is our highest priority," said Joe Lupo, president of Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Atlantic City.

Those who purchased tickets to a postponed event are encouraged to hold onto their tickets for a new date to be announced, however refunds will be available and issued at point of initial purchase for shows canceled or for those unable to attend a future postponed show.

As the COVID-19/coronavirus situation evolves, Hard Rock Atlantic City is continuing its commitment to intensive cleaning of the complex, with special attention paid to high-touch services and use of multiple cleaning products, including a peroxide-based disinfectant that kills 99.9 percent of viruses and bacteria. For the convenience of guests, hand sanitizing stands are available on the casino floor and at the entrances and other high-traffic locations.

Hard Rock is working closely with local safety and public health agencies, and other venue partners while aligning with local, state, federal and global public health guidelines and agencies. Additionally, Hard Rock Atlantic City will continue to review policies and procedures with the aim of strengthening our COVID-19 response to further align with updated public health advice and guidelines, including that of the U.S. Center for Disease Control (CDC) and World Health Organization (WHO). This includes promoting handwashing and healthy hygiene practices among our community of team members and guests.
