

The White House Sub Shop was opened in October 1946 by Anthony Basile. Along with his Aunt Basilia and Uncle Fritz Sacco, the store became one of the most popular sub shops in the country. It was their dedication and hard work that gave the White House the reputation that it has today.

In 1946, our parents were committed to bringing you the best sandwich made with the choicest meats. Today, we, their children, are committed to maintaining that same tradition of excellence created by our parents. In order to maintain that same excellence today, we regret that we must raise our prices. We will not disappoint our customers with a lesser quality product.

Sincerely,
The Basile & Sacco-Conley Families
and the White House Gang
