Codigo 1530 Hand - Selected Single Barrel Reposado "Street Taco" Private Barrel

This single-barrel reposado was hand-selected exclusively for Street Tacos at Seminole Classic Casino. The tequila has been aged for over six months in a lightly toasted Napa Valley Cabernet French white oak barrel.

This barrel is crafted from oak sourced from French state-owned forests, where the trees range from 150 to 200 years old. The fine-grained wood is carefully selected and naturally seasoned in open air, allowing the oak to develop exceptional character. The process delivers the richness, finesse, and aromatic elegance that fine-grained French oak is known for, qualities that help wines and spirits reach their fullest expression.

The Sylvain Grande Réserve barrels undergo an extended open-air drying process compared to standard Sylvain Réserve barrels, creating a refined and harmonious flavor profile. Each barrel is aged for a minimum of 14 months and finished with a Medium Plus toast. The wood itself is naturally seasoned for three years before being crafted into barrels.

The influence of this carefully seasoned French oak barrel brings distinctive character to the spirit as it matures. Aromas open with delicate floral and bright citrus notes on the nose, complemented by a subtle hint of roasted caramel derived from Medium Plus toast. On the palate, the expression is medium-bodied, fresh, and elegantly balanced, where vibrant citrus and refined oak integrate seamlessly. A gentle touch of butter rounds out the finish, creating a smooth and lingering complexity that showcases a harmonious balance between the agave and the barrel.
